Paul has been in the trenches of youth ministry for the past ten years. He has run parish youth ministry programs in both Louisiana and Arizona. He is the former Director of Parish Programs/Southern Regional Director for Life Teen International in Atlanta, and continues to serve Life teen as an Area coordinator in Louisiana.

Paul has spoken at rallies, retreats, conferences, schools and many other venues around the country. He had the honor of speaking in Rome, Italy for the World Youth Day Celebration in August of 2000. He also started a city-wide worship night (XLT) which draws over 600 hundred teens each week in Atlanta, GA. Paul passionately shares the Good News of Jesus Christ with young people. His straight-forward approach, humor, and conviction of truth draw his audience closer to the heart of Christ. Paul believes in our young people and dedicates his life to building the Kingdom of God through them. Paul is excited about magnifying God's name.

Paul currently resides in Houma, LA where he serves the diocese of Houma/Thibodaux. Paul is married to his college sweetheart Gretchen; they have three children, Marie, Jacob and Sarah.

directions to linganore high school

From Frederick, take 70 East about 10 minutes past Frederick. Take exit 62 for Libertytown at Rt. 75. Take a left off of the exit and go straight thru the light. This will put you onto 75 North. Go about 5 miles. At the stop light take a right onto Old Annapolis Rd. and Linganore High School will be on your right.
